Description

A good example of an antique Windsor farmhouse chair dating from the late 19th century. It has a wonderfully shaped elm seat with scrolling arms supported by turned spindles. It is high backed with turned spindles supporting an arched top rail. It stands on turned legs joined by a double stretcher. The chair stands approximately 41" (104cm) high. Arm to arm is 24" (61cm) wide. The seat is 20 1/2" (52cm) deep and 17 1/4" (44cm) high. It is in good original condition and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use with some minor marks on the seat and around the legs but nothing detrimental. It has developed a wonderful rich patina and the old stain has worn attractively on the arms and seat. There are some minor signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected it structurally or aesthetically. The chair has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
