Description

A stunning and elegant antique French card table in rosewood, dating from around the 1900-1920 period. This is of amazing quality, and is beautifully designed. The construction is all solid mahogany, with incredible rosewood veneers all over the top, sides and legs. There is gorgeous inlaid satin wood floral marquetry on the top, which swivels and opens out to reveal a green baize playing surface. There are gilt bronze mounts of the highest quality around the top edges, knees and feet. We have had this re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is excellent for its age.
