Description

We are delighted to offer this wonderful Edwardian 18K gold ring made in Chester 1908. The ring features elegant engravings of scrolls towards the top setting where 5 round cut diamonds glisten wonderfully. The diamonds are very well cut and set in slightly varying angles and glisten magnificently under natural lighting with hints of red, yellow and blue sparkles. The overall design is very stylish and classical to the Edwardian period - an ideal piece for a discerning collector of antique jewellery and to distinguish oneself from commonly seen contemporary pieces. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. All of our rings come with a complimentary gift box with a black velvet interior as photographed in the image below. The ring is marked with full English hallmarks including '18' on the inner shank of the ring. Size 7 Total Weight UK Size K US Size 5 1/4 3g /0.1 oz Condition: Good antique condition with no major issues/damage. Some slight scratching to the highpoints of the diamonds as expected with jewellery of this age - Please refer to the photos for further details. RESIZING We are able to offer a resizing ser...
