Description

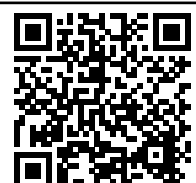

We are delighted to offer this stunning antique 18K white gold & opal brooch made c.1910. The brooch features a solid white gold bar/pin with a centrally mounted opal and 12 old cut cluster diamonds. The central opal has a fantastic blue/turquoise with hints of fiery pink and green towards the edges. The surrounding old cut diamonds glisten in many different angles under lighting and accents the opal wonderfully. The white gold colour and sparkling diamonds make for an incredibly stylish brooch. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. The brooch is unmarked and tests as 18K white gold Size . Total Weight 6.5cm wide. 4.7g /0.16 oz Condition: Good antique condition with no issues/damage. Please refer to the photos for further details.
