Description

Superb early 20th century light beige leather (or probably pig skin) and brass cartridge case in almost unused, near mint condition. This is a lovely colour case and is in first class condition. The inside is fully fitted with all the original mahogany divisions with pull out leather tabs for ease of use. The case comes with all its original straps. Shaped brass corners and brass catch and lock. Catch works beautifully but there is no key with it for locking. Both the inside and outside are beautiful. Please note I don't think you can fit modern cartridges across the way in the divisions. SIZE; 16 1/2" by 10" by 6" high CIRCA; 1900 - 1920
