Description

A 19th century French Napoleon III armchair, the shaped back over a pair of scroll arms and sprung seat with serpentine shaped front, raised on turned ebonised supports. The chair is structurally very sound with no loose joints and the sprung seat is in good order. The fabric covering is tired and grubby but undamaged, however I would assume a buyer would want to re-cover. I can arrange this with my upholsterer and supply fabric - please contact me for further details. Height of back: 85cm max, The seat measures 68cm wide at the front edge, 52cm deep and 37cm high.
