Description

A stunning piece and an easy way to create a dining table fit for a King, filled with fruit, and perhaps chocolates on the smaller baskets. The piece dismantles completely for storage, including the arms which are secured on the underside. Each basket has a highly decorative repousse border around the edges. The makers mark is clear on the underside CHH over S inside a shield for CHARLES HENRY HATTERSLEY of Sheffield. Late Victorian, early Edwardian in era, around 1900. Excellent condition and ready to adorn your tabletop. In its entirety, it measures 21" wide x 8" tall with the large central bowl measuring 9 1/2" in diameter. Item ID: 32472 -----
