Description

A Fine Quality Late 19th Century Satinwood Oval Two Tier Etagere, Or Dumbwaiter, Having Removable Lift Off Glass Tray Top And Superbly Figured Veneers With Crossbanded And Inlaid Decoration Raised On Four Elegant Splayed Legs United By Central Shaped Cross Stretcher. This little table is both elegant and useful, combining the two beautifully it must be said. The design is fairly typical of the production output of the workshops of the top London cabinet makers in the late 19th and early 20th centuries and it is constructed from the finest available satinwood of the time with excellent additional banded and inlaid decoration. It exudes elegance and sophistication throughout and would make a perfect occasional table to use for entertaining with drinks due to the lift off glass top. Overall the condition is good and it has very clearly been well loved and cherished as well used throughout the many years of its life. Circa 1890. Height 32in. Width 35in. Depth 22.5in.
