Description

This Walnut Bedside cabinet dates from the early 1900s and is in nice tidy condition. It is French and has a marble top, so no marks from the night time brandy, If that is your choice. It has a little drawer above a cupboard and the marble top sits inside a walnut frame with a serpentine shape. The legs are a long cabriole shape with a shaped foot. This is well detailed and has quartered panels on the sides as the pictures show and the quartered graining on the door face. A super little item with a very pleasing mellow tone to the grain, that is really well priced. We have sold a similar one shown with picture attached which was used in a conservatory, this one may be a better choice having the less markable marble top. If you would like please don't hesitate to give us a ring 01565 874075.
