Description

An Exceptional William IV Mahogany Fold Over Tea Table. A charming William IV tea table in a stunning original condition. We are delighted to bring to you this outstanding William IV fold over tea table believed to be made around C1830. This lovely table is in a fine original condition which we have just enhanced by sympathetically restoring and waxing this table preserving the lovely lightly faded original rich Mahogany colour with lots of patina and charm. The top of this table slides over on an offset pivot to reveal a storage compartment before folding over to the double size polished table surface. To the underside of the top features a frieze with a moulded panel to the centre and elegantly carved scrolls to either end. The stunning original tabletop stands on its cylindrical descending pillar to a quatra form base which sits on its elegantly carved and scrolled feet complete with its original inset brass lightly polished castors. There is no movement or play in any of the joints as the table is being normally used, the top is flat with no bowing or twisting and smoothly turns and folds over. This table has a small overall form yet is versatile from havi...
