Description

A fine example of a Georgian silver teapot. It is an elegant bulbous shape sitting on a round foot with finely engraved scrolling decoration, a wooden knob finial and a wooden handle. It is good quality, weighing a total of 357g. It is clearly hallmarked on the underside for London, 1780 and the maker Thomas Pratt & Arthur Humphries. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. There are a few scuffs on the wooden handle and there are some minor signs of age and use and some general light surface marks but no major dents or damages. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £10, rest of the world £30.
