Description

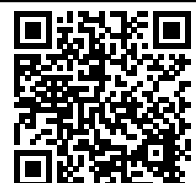

An elegant antique Victorian brass double by Hoskins & Sewell of Birmingham dating from circa 1880. Founded in 1850, Hoskins and Sewell were one of the 19th centuries most renowned brass bed makers, who provided beds for the titanic. This is a good quality all brass bed, a simple but elegant design with turned spindles and turned finials and stands on casters. Each corner is stamped with the Hoskins & Sewell logo. It features a headboard, footboard and two side irons. Suitable for a double mattress. Does not come with mattress or base.

Construction: Brass Condition Report: Original patina to brass with good colour. Tarnishing and marks commensurate with age. Some dents to the feet. One of the finials has sunk and the collar split in places (see photos). Some of the finials are slightly loose.
