Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

Dating from circa 1870 this eight day striking French Comtoise wall clock is in very good condition. It has the traditional repeat strike function at two minutes past the hour and also original trefoil hands, accompanying a wooden wall bracket for mounting. The brass surround has been carefully restored as has the movement and the dial is in very good condition. Please note the stand in the photos is for display only and the clock comes with my two year guarantee as standard. Rather than trusting a courier of any sort I unreservedly recommend collection or I can deliver regionally. All antique clocks require delicate handling and specific setting up so it is far better for a dealer to meet a client and talk them through the process, or set the clock up for them, rather than leave the client struggling at the other end on their own.
