Description

Seriously priced to sell, this Victorian tapestry of a blue bird is an attractive example. The mahogany frame is very well detailed and in good condition, finish is a little dull and would benefit from a clean and rewax. We would prefer collection but are happy to post which would cost £20 as we will have to box carefully as normal carriers will not insure antiques. We have another couple of these for sale at the moment, please check out our web site if of interest.
