Description

This is an antique shop's dressing mirror. An English, walnut cheval mirror with rare tilt and swivel action, dating to the Regency period and later, circa 1820. Superb retail dressing mirror with excellent proportion. Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout. Select walnut shows fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Original mirror plate shows a sought-after light foxing. Sitting atop the tall frame, the crown adorned with a pair of brass finials. The apron accentuated with ormolu mounts in foliate wreath form. Support columns with reeded finish terminate in Doric capitals. Fully articulated mirror frame upon the horizontal and vertical axis. Generously sized, the mirror presents a clear, bright reflection. Mirror back finished with a crisp, white silk cotton fabric displaying a foliate pattern. Pair of small drawers sit beneath the frame, dressed with small circular pulls. Standing upon a quartet of scroll form legs, with brass and ceramic castors. This is a striking antique shop's dressing mirror, with superior quality and Regency period elegance. Of fine proportion, this grand mirror is destined for the finest of bedrooms or a luxurious retail environment. Solid jo...
