Description

A Scottish Antique Victorian Sterling silver bowl which is circular in shape with a large deep body, two side handles and resting on a round pedestal foot. The body of the bowl has been highly decorated with horses, riders and chariots which makes this bowl rather unique in design. There is a simple feature around the top rim depicting flowers, shells and swirls and the lower part of the body has fluted decoration. There is also some leaf detailing on the sweeping side handles which helps to complete the overall style of this wonderful bowl. It would make an impressive table centrepiece and remains in excellent condition. The bowl weighs 70 troy ounces (2172 grams). Height to the top of the handle : 30.3 cms (12"). Height to the top of the rim : 25.6 cms (10"). Diameter of body : 30.2 cms (11.9"). Width from handle to handle : 44 cms (17.5"). It was hallmarked in Glasgow for 1895 by Edward & Sons. Complimentary postage is included within the price.
