Description

A stunning George III mahogany fretwork mirror with a carved gilt ho-ho bird, gilded mirror slip and inlaid conch shell. The mirror is of good proportions at nearly one metre high. There are sympathetic repairs to the top left fret and the fret to the left side of the ho-ho bird (please see photographs). The mirror retains its original plate which shows some foxing. The wood throughout has a wonderful warm colour and the gilding remains bright. Verso the mirror has pine boarding commensurate with age with a wound hanging wire. A very attractive mirror.
