Description

An unusual 19th century antique ash and elm captain's chair with adjustable head rest. The captain's armchair has a spindle back with shaped, outswept arms. The seat is raised on four turned legs with a double H stretcher support. To the back is an adjustable height head rest. Originally used by a barber. Item Ref; M-3466 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 75cm / Width - 69cm / Depth - 68.5cm / Seat Height - 42cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and staining to the seat (pictured). The captain's chair remains structurally solid and sound with good tight joints. An unusual and interesting piece. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
