Description

An early 19th century antique oak dresser. The boarded rack back top has a moulded cornice and two fitted shelves. The oak dresser base has three fitted drawers, each with brass swan neck handles, above two decorative blind arch panel cupboard doors. The cupboard doors open to reveal a spacious interior with a single fitted shelf running the whole width of the oak dresser. Raised on a plinth base. The oak dresser separates at the mid-point for ease of transport and movement. Item Ref; M-2420 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 194cm / Width – 166.5cm / Depth – 60cm / Surface Height – 97.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and staining to the surface top (pictured) and to the front of the base. The oak dresser remains structurally solid and sound. There is evidence of old historic wood worm in places – this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax.
