Description

This very well modelled and detailed VICTORIAN STAFFORDSHIRE FIGURE dates from circa 1860. It shows an exceptionally well-dressed Farmer holding a sickle over his shoulder with his other arm around a young boy who cradles a tiny bird in his hand. The Farmer is standing in a patch of maize (sweetcorn) which he is, presumably, about to cut. There is a lot of detail to this Figure and it is one of the best of its kind. It stands a stately 14.25 inches (36 cm) high. The condition is good. There is a small surface chip to the underside of the footrim at the back. There is no restoration. Height: 14.25 inches (36 cm) Express Delivery in Mainland UK is included. We are happy to ship worldwide and will give a quote on request.
