Description

Fine and rare George II period mahogany kneehole desk/dressing table; the one long and six small drawers with finely-worked oak linings and original brass lattice-fret handles, surrounding a recessed cupboard and a shallow drawer in the arch; standing on two pairs of boldly carved paw feet with fetlocks and with ogee bracket feet at the rear; the moulded top with re-entrant front corners. Circa 1755 John Beazor Antiques is a family firm, established in 1875 and based in Cambridge since 1940. We are a traditional antiques shop, but very much in the 21st century. We deal in 18th and early 19th century furniture, barometers and clocks. We choose our stock for its originality and for the quality of its colour, patination and design. We are members of the BADA. We do not exhibit at fairs preferring to deal from our Cambridge shop where – in normal times – we hold an Open Weekend every November. We hope to run an event in 2022!
