Description

The rectangular tilt top of this 19th century lamp table is supported by a tapering ring and knopped pedestal which terminates with elegant tripod legs. The condition is good, the colour rich and the table stands well. This table is in original condition, there are a few scratches to the top as can be expected of an item that has been in use for over 150 years, these do not detract from the appearance of this antique table. A good Victorian lamp table, easy to place in any setting. c. 1870 Width: 21" 53 cm Depth: 15.5" 39.5 cm Height: 27.5" 70 cm
