Description

A fine example of an antique sterling silver tea pot. It is a pretty shape with a wooden handle and wooden finial. It is good quality, weighing a total of 265g with the handle. The hallmarks are slightly rubbed but are distinguishable for London, 1926 and the maker C.E. It is in good condition for its age and displays beautifully. There are signs of age and use and some general light surface marks but no major dents or damages. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK delivery £10, rest of the world £30.
