Description

A truly beautiful Georgian solid pine dresser with glazed top over two drawers and double cupboard c. 1820 . A lovely ripe melon colour that only very old pine develops, heavy and sturdy and of handsome proportions. . The back covered with two huge hewn pine boards with hand made iron nail fixings. . The pair of upper doors with chamfered detailing to the glazing bars, retaining all original hand made glass and with a pair of small brass button handles - one with brass turn catch which allows you to lock the doors - and enclosing two original fixed pine shelves with plate bead at rear - the whole surmounted by a wide flared original cornice. . Both drawers with original and substantial pine linings and turned pine handles (no evidence of other or earlier handles). . The lower cupboard with pair of attractively moulded double panel doors, again each with brass button handle and with brass turn catch and an old redundant lock. Enclosing a single full width original fixed pine shelf. All set on a wide and heavy plinth base. The upper and lower doors and the two drawers open and close smoothly and stay shut when closed. . The dresser does not dismantle - it was made in one p...
