Description

For your consideration and for those gents out there who aspire to something not only special but represents true Art Deco in its styling not just noted for when it was made and in great condition, then this wrist watch maybe what you're seeking. A good sized dial for modern day use, originally as a dress watch but works equally well for day wear for the dapper gentleman out there. This watch is in remarkable condition for its age, 70 plus odd years with no scratching to the glass crystal, no wear through the gold or back plate. This watch has just been fully serviced so will serve the new owner for many years again. Beautiful Champagne coloured dial which is in superb condition. The 17 jewel Hamilton 747 movement is working well and was serviced this month. The 10k Gold filled case is in near mint condition with no visible scratches or marks to the naked eye, this truly is a lovely watch. New winding crown and 18mm wide leather strap fitted. Size 26mm wide (excluding crown) x 37mm lug to lug. FREE UK mainland delivery, sent in a presentation box.
