Description

This remarkable painting depicts with almost photographic detail a setting with a period country elm table set with a pleasing display of grapes together with water droplets. There is an orange resting on an 18th century shaped plate with red foliate decoration and behind there is an early stemmed glass with remaining spirit together with a 19th century German pottery ewer decorated in beige, brown and dark blue with a scrolling design over a crackled ground. Resting in front is a Victorian carved ivory handled knife with a small group of grapes alongside. The fine workmanship of the artist and their attention to detail is brilliant. Signed in the top left hand corner, C.B Curam and also on the canvas stretcher with the date 1968. Sizes including frame height 65cm x width 54.5 cm x depth 6cm
