Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A magnificent antique 19th century walnut inlaid circular centre table. The top having a central circular inlaid panel of flowers with radiating figured walnut veneers with a further concentric band similarly inlaid. This antique Victorian centre/dining/tripod/occasional/hall table would easily seat 6 six people if used as a dining table. The tilt top raised on a tripod base, unusually, with further inlays on lions paw feet. Circa 1840. Measures 51" diameter x 29.5"high. See our website for more examples for sale.
