Description

A late Victorian or early Edwardian Strawberry set, the two trays would be piled high with summer Strawberries and served with caster sugar in the bowl and fresh cream in the jug or creamer. Today I use these to serve cakes, biscuits, cookies and chocolates with the milk or cream in the jug and sugar for the tea or coffee, a really usable and stunning table top serving piece for any occasion. The trays are extremely attractive with engraved floral sprays and attractive scalloped edges. The bases of the sugar and creamer are made to fit into the rings either side of the handle, and their interior's, gilded. The stand sits on four handsome lion's paw feet. The underside is marked EPNS for Electro-Plated Nickel Silver and the makers mark G W over S inside a shield for George Wish of Sheffield. Excellent condition, measuring 11" x 10" x 9 1/2" tall to top of handle. Item ID: 32447
