Description

This framed VICTORIAN SAMPLER bears the name and date of ANN TAYLOR January 16th 1839. It is embroidered with a LOVERS' VERSE: If ever fortune should decree Separation for our lot And send me far away from thee I beg Forget me not When to some distant place I'll be Far far away from thee Thou'll look on this and with a sigh Thou wilt remember me And if to meet no more it should be From your memory never blot That I these lines did give to thee The words Forget me not But still we hope to meet again And this shall be the sign That I do pledge my troth to thee And thou shalt pledge me thine It is worked on fine lawn which has suffered a little over the years. There are a few tiny holes and some damage amongst the lines of the second verse which I have photographed. It displays well. Dimensions of Frame: Height: 16 inches (40.5 cm) Width: 10.25 inches (26.5 cm) Express Mainland postage is included. We are happy to quote for Overseas Shipping on request.
