Description

Rare Very Large English 19th Century Antique Glass Creamer Dish. A wonderful, large scale and a rare survivor, this 19th century antique glass creamer would have once been used in a dairy to separate the cream from the milk. It is in amazing condition and has a pouring lip with a folded out, thick glass edge for extra support. Totally undamaged and with a ground out pontil underneath, rare to find one in such fabulous condition. A decorative antique piece for the table. Dimensions Height: 12cm (4.76") Width: 54cm (21.43") Depth: 54cm (21.43")
