Description

A high Victorian sterling silver letter opener, quite wonderful with its ornate repousse handle and intricately engraved sterling silver blade. The handle has a decorative armorial crest engraved onto the cartouche. There are English silver hallmarks to both the handle and blade for Sheffield 1899. The handle is also hallmarked Sheffield 1899 together with the makers initials for Richard Martin & Ebenezer Hall. The handle is also lucky enough to have the English design registration diamond, dated October 1847 for the date this design was first registered. Grand and decorative in excellent condition, measuring 9 1/4" in length. Item ID: 32404 ----- FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
