Description

A large welsh oak dresser. The top has moulded cornice above an open rack back of three fitted shelves, each with an arrangement of small iron hooks. This sits above a base composed of three drawers over two small drawers to either side. Each drawer has brass handles and backplates, with the three drawers having escutcheons, though there is no key. It is raised on turned front legs and straight rear legs. The under-tier pot board shelf serves as a support, also it has three raised panels. Item Ref; M-2213 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 186.5cm / Width – 171.5cm / Depth – 42.5cm / Surface Height – 87.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including shrinkage gaps to surface top and sides (pictured). Evidence of historic woodworm, though this is long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. There are losses to the back and under-tier pot board shelf (pictured). Minor losses to shelving on dresser top and the cornice (pictured).
