Description

A good quality nest of 3 antique Victorian mahogany tables by Gillows of Lancaster dating from circa 1890. Each table having a raised carved egg and dart beading with solid oval mahogany top standing on turned gun barrel legs with shaped feet and curved cross stretchers. Each table is stamped with the initials "GL" for Gillows Lancaster. Construction/Wood Mahogany Condition Report Good colour, patina and figuring. Wear and marks commensurate to age to the table tops. The top table has some side to side movement some due to the structure of these tall elegant tables, the other two are more solid. A small piece of the egg and dart moulding missing to the top table.
