Description

~ French - Circa 1880 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A stunning original antique French cartel wall clock by the famous Parisian maker Raingo Frères with the movement by Japy Frères. It is Louis XV in style, the Rococo case formed of sweeping 'C' scrolls and acanthus. It is heavily modelled in bronze with a fine gilt finish. The dial is porcelain enamel on copper with a separate minute ring and beautifully cut original hands and convex glass. The French movement is of Japy Frères usual excellent quality. It is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. We have a video of the clock running, please ask and we will send you a link. The dial of this clock is signed for the famous Parisian maker Raingo Frères with the mark repeated on the the movement backplate. The movement's serial number is also repeated on the case and the pendulum. Also on the movement back plate is the mark for the clockmaker - Japy Frères. The origins of the company Raingo Frères lie with Zacharie Joseph Raingo (1775-1847), a clockmaker, who was born in B...
