Description

Victorian walnut Sutherland coffee table This Victorian walnut Sutherland coffee table was made circa 1870. It has been cleverly reduced in height in its life to make a superb coffee table. Of course, there is no such thing as an antique coffee table and so people in the 20thc. adapted items so that these beautiful pieces could be used in a modern lifestyle. The oval top is of burr walnut laid to make a dramatic design and the rest of the table in solid walnut. Legs swings out to support the tops or slide inboard to allow the leaves to drop when or if you require to place it away from the centre of your room. As the walnut is so interesting it makes for a superb centrepiece as well as being a superb coffee table.
