Description

Antique Regency Mahogany Breakfront Sideboard An amazing condition original server sideboard. We are delighted to bring to you one of the finest examples of a grand Regency (circa 1820) server sideboard. The sideboard features a breakfront with Ebony broad-banded edge and Boxwood and Ebony inlays and stringing throughout its design. This sideboard also features an arched central section below the large centre drawer to house a cellarette to the right hand side and a dummy drawer cupboard to the left whilst retaining a symmetrical curved drawer appearance. This fine server sideboard has the most beautiful flame grain Mahogany to the frontage and stands on its lovely Regency Tulip turned legs. This sideboard is in an outstanding original condition featuring its original beautiful lightly faded french polished finish with a lovely rich mahogany colour. The sideboard also features fine quality polished solid brass round brass dropper handles (later addition would have had turned knobs originally) and brass keyhole escutcheons in front of its original working brass locks which all work with original key. The cupboard on the left has an unusual locking system of a brass pin w...
