Description

A particularly fine George III Period Mahogany, crossbanded and inlaid butterfly shaped serpentine Pembroke Table with a drawer at each end flanked by inlaid rosewood ovals and raised on square section tapered, fluted and stop fluted legs terminating in block feet with brass cups and leather barrel castors. Circa: 1775 Price :£ 3,750-00p. Height: 30", 75 cms, Width (open): 40", 100 cms, Width (closed): 20.8", 52 cms, Depth: 30.4", 76 cms. Note: The form, decoration and details like the legs are typical of the later Chippendale Period particularly with the fluting and stop fluting. The Rosewood crossbanding and oval Inlays are hints towards the neoclassical work of the Adams brothers. The serpentine or butterfly shape of this example would have been more expensive for the cabinetmaker to produce.
