Description

A large 18th century oak linen press housekeeper's cupboard. The 18th century housekeeper's cupboard has two panelled cupboard doors that open to reveal a spacious interior, which consists of the original wooden pegs and an additional modern hanging rail. The 18th century housekeeper's cupboard base has an arrangement of three short drawers above two long drawers, each with brass drop handles. Raised on bracket feet, and complete with working lock and key. Item Ref; M-3364 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 196cm / Width – 164cm / Depth – 58cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks to the frame. The 18th century housekeeper's cupboard remains structurally solid and sound, with the drawers running well. The cupboard comes apart in three sections for ease of transport. Complete with working lock and key. Overall, a rather great example. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home!
