Description

An attractive and well-proportioned antique oak lowboy side table. The rectangular shaped top is raised above one fitted drawer, with brass swan neck handles. The table is raised on four tapering square legs. On inspection this table has been altered, and was previously a flip over table, however this does not distract from or compromise its current charm. The top leaf has been taken off and the back legs have been fixed to create a lowboy side table. Overall, a neat 19th century oak lowboy side table. Item Ref; M-3524 DIMENSIONS: Height – 74.5cm / Width – 81cm / Depth – 44.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the top (pictured). The top has hinge cut outs to the rear (pictured) due to the alterations. The oak lowboy side table remains structurally intact, with the drawer running well. Good colour and patina throughout. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home!
