Description

A lovely pair of ladderback carver chairs dating from the early to mid 20th Century. They are made of oak which has got a lovely patina and has worn slightly on the arms where they have been handled. They have rush seats and they stand on turned legs with pad feet joined by stretchers. The chairs are a good size and are comfortable to sit in. They are 44" (112cm) high, 23 1/2" (60cm) wide across the arms and 19" (48cm) deep. The seats are approximately 17" (43cm) high. They are in very good condition with no major damages. The chairs are firm and the joints are strong. There are a few knocks and light scuffs around the legs and some minor age-related marks here and there but nothing detrimental. They have all been cleaned and lightly polished and are ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
