Description

We are delighted to offer this stylish Victorian 15K gold antique navette ring made in Chester 1893. The ring is beautifully formed in a navette design with the central cluster presenting of 3 sapphires in the middle and 12 old rose cut diamonds on the sides. The ring's setting and colour are also fabulous with a slightly rose gold-tone and a very finely made shank and decorated shoulders. The ring is fully hallmarked for Chester 1893 with English marks. Sapphire is known to be the birthstone of September. A very special gift to a lucky individual or as an indulging gift to oneself. Perfect for discerning antique jewellery lovers and those with an eye for classical elegance. All of our rings come with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a velvet interior.
