Description

Dating around 1900-1910 this stunning antique Kazak rug has wonderful rich reds and deep blues, combined with pale blues, rare greens and soft pinks. Remarkable high wool pile all over, a truly stunning, collectable Caucasian Kazak. Coming from the highlands in Azerbaijan, these antique rugs are famous for their soft wool, bold geometric designs and vibrant colours. Rugs bearing the name Kazak come from the highland area of the Caucasus in Azerbaijan whose centre is the town of Kazak. Woven by semi-nomadic shepherds of the region. They use fabulous vegetable dyes and high quality hand spun wool from their own herd. Depending on the weave some Kazak rugs can be extremely soft to handle as the wool is light and woven on a supple foundation. We offer the service of viewing any of our antique and contemporary carpets & rugs in-situ in London, Surrey, Hampshire the UK & Europe by appointment. Request a home visit we would love to show you this antique Kazak rug in situ.
