Description

Pair of leather William and Mary style wing chairs This Pair of leather William and Mary style wing chairs were made circa 1900. The walnut frames in the high William and Mary manner, especially highlighted with the pierced carved front rail, joining the bold carved cabriole legs. The legs are joined by block and turned stretchers. We have re-upholstered this in the traditional manner, covering it in fine russet hide, before our expert restorer has hand dyed and finished this in an antique finish so that it feels like it has been on this all its life. Usually, we cover the seat cushions in leather, but we have chosen to do on this occasion using a velvet, this gives it a lovely contrast but also sometimes the leather can be slippery. Imagine how wonderful these will look in your home and how much pleasure you will have as you sit back and relax in these magnificent wingchairs. These are priced as a PAIR Dimensions 128cms high 50 1/2ins 86cms wide 34ins 77cms deep 30ins 56cms seat height 22ins 55cms seat depth 21 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
