Description

A good pair of Edwardian leather upholstered club armchairs on original turned bun feet. English circa 1910. A well proportioned and comfortable pair of leather upholstered club chairs dating to the Edwardian period. The shaped back over out-srolled shallow floating buttoned armrests flanking sprung seat, with brass stud work detailing standing on turned front bun feet and brass castors. These antique leather chairs have been upholstered with a quality russet leather hide which is then hand dyed using a traditional method. The seat height is 15 inches and seat width is 20 inches.
