Description

A magnificent set of 6 antique Edwardian mahogany Chippendale dining chairs dating from circa 1905 by J Jones & Sons of Derby. With crisply carved back splats, standing on elegantly shaped cabriole legs with carved ball and claw feet. The stuff-over seats have been recently reupholstered in a quality fabric. In a beautifully figured mahogany, would make a wonderful set of dining chairs. With labels: "J. Jones & Sons Cabinet Makers & Upholsterers Derby." Construction/Wood: Mahogany Condition Report: Good colour and patina, frames fairly solid and sturdy. Recently reupholstered, fabric clean a few small pulls here and there. Wear and marks commensurate with age to frames. One or two chairs have slight movement to backs otherwise all solid. Dimensions: Height: 97cm Width: 57cm Depth: 57cm Height to seat: 46cm
