Description

A charming oak gossip chair by Wheelers of Arncroach in Fife. The classic Chippendale style back has an open splat and curved top ends having a drop in seat. There are large square legs to the front and slightly out swept back legs, united by an H stretcher and a cross stretcher at the back. The well-known 'Gossip' chair was a design by Sir Robert Lorimer of Kellie Castle in Scotland and made by William Wheeler of Arncroach in Fife who was both joiner and wheelwright to the Lorimer family.
