Description

This is a lovely and unusual raised wine coaster. It is large enough for a champagne bottle or magnum. Dating towards the end of the Victorian era, the coaster has pierced sides decorated with swags of harebells and four lion masks. The inside of the base is also plated, rather than the usual turned wood. The claw feet are at the end of elegant reeded legs surrounding a central boss which is equally attractive. There are a few areas where the Old Sheffield Plate has worn away (usually though over-enthusiastic cleaning) but this does not in any way detract from the eye-catching piece. (The champagne bottle is shown in the pictures for comparative purposes and is not included with the piece - sorry!) Dimensions: Height: 21cm Diameter: 17cm Diameter of opening: 12cm. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
