CONDITION REPORT: In well-worn antique condition throughout with various signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and stains to the surface top (pictured). There is further wear, including minor losses to the plank top and side panels (pictured). There is evidence of historic woodworm, however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. Overall, the antique oak chest is quite worn in places but remains a rather charming example of an 18th century oak chest of drawers.
