Description

A handsome antique Edwardian Arts and Crafts bureau by Harris Lebus in oak dating from circa 1905. A good example With good colour, it has a heart shaped cut-out to the top and fancy copper hinges embossed with hearts to the fall. With its stylish original cup handle the fall drops down to reveal pigeon holes to the interior. Below the fall are two open bookshelves and it stands on shaped bracket feet. A nice sized bureau, in beautifully figured solid oak, it would work well in a hall or living room as an occasional desk. The fall locks and comes with working key. Founded in 1840, Harris Lebus was a furniture manufacturer and wholesaler based in the East End of London in Tabernacle Street with a factory in Tottenham. The firm supplied stores such as Maple & Co., mainly producing bedroom and dining furniture. This piece of furniture is catalogue No 900b and the registration No is 417139. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good colour. Wear and marks commensurate with age. Old mend to foot. Dimensions: Max Height: 128cm Max Width: 70cm Max Depth: 31cm Height to Fall: 74cm
