A fine example of a small mid 18thc Oak Bureau Bookcase....made from "quarter" sawn oak, which show the attractive medullary rays of the oak on the "fall" and doors ....always a sign of quality workmanship....so hard to find such a small piece being only 29.75" (75.60cms) width or 34" (86.50cms) if you measure the top including the cornice....original condition with later brass handles....just right to sit at with a laptop...!
